

COMMENT

46 GREEN VALLEY NEWS & SUN

www.jvnews.com

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 2004

Editorials

A novel idea for marking Sept. 11 anniversary

We knew Frank Sartzanowicz had a good idea the first time we heard it. A veteran and hero himself, the Green Valley resident has a novel approach to how we can mark the third remembrance of Sept. 11, 2001. Since firefighters were some of the most visible heroes on that horror-filled day, he wants to honor our local firefighters as we mark the occasion and honor the vital services our Green Valley firefighters provide. He'd would like to set a few more volunteers to help him and his wife to cook meals for all of the firefighters at the three stations here and he's already gotten a commitment from the Elks Lodge and Bashas to provide some of the feast for the firefighters as they mark this occasion. He figures he only needs a crew of about seven or eight to help cook and clean up. You can learn more about Frank Sartzanowicz and his idea to honor firefighters in a story on page A1 of today's edition. He has a great idea that may even become an annual tradition in Green Valley.

We agree with Frank that this is a great opportunity to let our Green Valley firefighters and paramedics know just how much we appreciate them and how much we count on them. And we hope that other volunteers will contact Frank Sartzanowicz at 625-8913 and his wife to let them know they can help him prepare a feast for the firefighters as they mark this occasion.

He figures he only needs a crew of about seven or eight to help cook and clean up. You can learn more about Frank Sartzanowicz and his idea to honor firefighters in a story on page A1 of today's edition. He has a great idea that may even become an annual tradition in Green Valley.